GENERAL RULES

GENERAL RULES

- Bring generators and electrical cords if you have them. Power is limited in the barn. You will be required to clean up and take home any bedding/debris around your equipment and generators. Beef Superintendent staff will monitor your trailer or stall area at departure.

- All animals are to be fed and shown by the exhibitor. Family members/other junior exhibitors may assist.

- Registration papers must be in the name of the exhibitor or in his/her parents or farm name. All purebred animals in each species must have registration papers to exhibit in purebred classes.

- No medicines/drugs may be given to an animal at the show without a vet and show chairman approval.

- Any animal showing symptoms of a contagious disease will not be permitted to show. No active warts or ringworm are allowed on cattle, a veterinarian will be on the grounds to assist show staff.

- All cattle must be polled or dehorned. Any cattle with horns or scur will be not be permitted to show.

- Any animal that has been altered by a surgical procedure will be disqualified.

BEEF RULES

- We will be showing out of indoor arena in cattle barn. Show preparation must be done within immediate perimeter.
- Out-of-state exhibitors must provide a copy of health paper to the beef superintendent staff to retain for our records.
- This is a “no-fit, blow and go” show.
- Please bring extension cords (note power in barn is limited). If using generator, it must be outside the barn 5 feet from building with exhaust blowing away from building. Keep flammable materials away from generators.
- Shirt orders are available with show entries on the Showman.app. A limited number of shirts and sizes will be available on show day.
- Commercial Heifers will be shown by age and breed.
- Steers will be shown by breed and/or weight. All purebred steers need papers to show in the purebred division.
- Check tattoos against registration papers before you leave home. If a tattoo does not match a registration paper, the entry will be moved to the commercial division.
- To our out of state exhibitors; here are some rules you should be aware of. You must have an 840 RFID tag or other state approved identification. You will not be allowed to show and will have to return home if you do not have proper ID on your health paper. Make sure your veterinarian is up to date with new regulations. • Check this link:
